

It was doubting the good sense of men to tell them that the 21st rule was consistent with the right of petition.

Upon the subject of abolishing slavery in this District, he only insisted that the power existed with Congress, but the expediency he would not examine. In this connexion he quoted the opinion of Martin Van Buren, who, when the plain question, susceptible of a direct answer, was put to him by certain gentlemen of N. Carolina:—"Do you believe that Congress possesses the power to abolish slavery in the District of Columbia?"—answered, with his usual circumlocution, in the affirmative. [This citation was somewhat annoying to the Locofocos.]

Upon the expiration of Mr. R.'s hour, Mr. DROMGOOLE obtained the floor.

NOTICE.—The Campbells are coming! Hard to beat! Fair play and no goings!—No monopoly!—BEEF! BEEF! BEEF!—To my old friends and fellow citizens, and the public generally—I return thanks to you all for the kind patronage you have extended to me since I have catered for you in the Centre Market, and now make known to you that I (in addition to my stalls in old Centre Market, next to Mr. James Rhodes's, and opposite Frederick Hagar's) have a store on the corner of 6th street and Pennsylvania avenue, where, at all times, I have on hand the best assortment of Beef, both fresh and salt, that can be procured in this city. I now have for slaughter 80 head of fat cattle, raised and fed by Hamilton Rogers, Esq., and 60 head of spayed heifers, raised and fed by Tibball, (both of which gentlemen are the best feeders of cattle in Virginia,) and drove with the greatest care by Robert L. Armstrong and Bascable, and purchased for me by a gentleman of this city who is admitted to be the best judge of good Beef in the United States; and will have, commencing on Saturday morning, and continuing each market morning thereafter, a portion of said extraordinary fine Beef, at 64 cents per pound, first cuts.

All boarding houses and families who are fond of good living will give me a call, for I am convinced if you once call you will assuredly purchase.

BY LAST NIGHT'S MAIL.

WASHINGTON'S BIRTH-DAY IN PHILADELPHIA.

Yesterday being the 112th anniversary of the birth of the immortal Washington, it was celebrated in this city and vicinity in a manner that has not been surpassed, if equalled, for a long series of years, excepting only the centennial celebration. The weather was as mild and pleasant as a May day. All the principal streets presented the appearance of a holiday—the sidewalks were crowded with pedestrians, and the carriageway thronged with vehicles; also companies and battalions of military, looking remarkably well, and accompanied by superb bands of music. Flags were streaming from the shipping and public places. All the public offices were closed before noon, and many faces wore the appearance of rejoicing.

In the morning the Whig Festival at the Musical Fund Hall, was largely attended. The speakers were warmly greeted as they progressed, and the performances of the splendid band added much to the proceedings.

The Whig Ball at the Chesnut street Theatre closed the festivities of the day. Shortly after nightfall, the streets and sidewalks in the vicinity of the Theatre were crowded by dense masses of people.—Phil. Chronicle of yesterday.

DEATH OF THE HON. ALBERT HOA.—The New Orleans Bee of the 15th instant says: "It is our mournful duty to record another visitation from on high, that has stricken to the tomb an honored and cherished citizen of the State. The Hon. Albert Hoa expired yesterday, about 8 o'clock, P. M., after a short and painful illness. He was attacked by a disease, known among the faculty as intussusception of the intestines, which baffled all remedial aid. He was a creole of Louisiana, and a man of ability, learning and probity. His loss will be severely felt by the State, who mingles her sorrows with the wailings of his family."

LATEST FROM TEXAS.

By the arrival of the steam-packet Neptune, the New Orleans Bee has received files of Texas papers.

The following items are from the Gaaveston Gazette, of the 10th inst:

Nothing has yet transpired as to the character of the despatches recently received from our Commissioners to Mexico.

The Houston Democrat says, a report has reached that place, via Bexar, that all the Mexican villages along the Rio Grande have been illuminated, on account, as is stated, of an armistice for ten years having been agreed upon by the Commissioners of the two countries. We are not prepared to credit, without better authority, the reports of the establishment of so long a truce; but from the various reports which reach us, all concurring in stating that the suspension of hostilities for some certain period has been agreed upon, we are led to believe that something of the kind has taken place.

It is believed, that Congress adjourned on Monday last.

There is a report that the bill providing for the payment in part of the officers and men, lately belonging to the navy, passed both houses and was vetoed by the President. We should regret very much to find the report true.

At the last accounts, Congress had literally done nothing; which is, perhaps, better than to have undone all the work of their predecessors, and substituted nothing better in its place—which has some resemblance to the general course of legislation.

General Murphy, the U. S. Charge d'Affaires, who has been in this city for some months past, left on Thursday, on board the Dayton, for Houston. We understand that his health is bad, and he hopes to be benefited by a change of location. He may extend his visit to Washington.

Houston, Feb. 7.

BEXAR.—The latest news received from Bexar via Washington, is to the 24th ult. At that time Leal and a party of marauders, held full sway in that section. There were so few Americans in the city, that no resistance was offered to them and they often came openly into the streets of Bexar.

The trade with the Rio Grande has been completely cut off by these bandits. Only one trader ventured into the city during the last month, and he was robbed of all his property, amounting to about $5,000. It is believed that the Mexican officers on the Rio Grande connive at these robberies.

The Texas papers are filled with rumors in relation to annexation.

A joint committee in Congress have reported favorably upon the conduct of Commodore Moore in the late controversy between that gentleman and the President.

SEIZURE OF TEXAN COTTON.—The Civilian mentions that an American vessel has been seized at the Sabine with a cargo of three hundred bales of Texan cotton, and retained for adjudication for an attempt to evade the revenue laws by smuggling this cotton into New Orleans as the product of Louisiana.

SPLendid PIANO FORTES.—Persons wishing Piano Fortes are invited to call at CONCERT HALL, (Todd's rooms) and examine six superior toned instruments, from the factory of Joseph Hisky, Baltimore. Among them is a splendid upright piano, made for the President's House, which, if not disposed of at private sale, will be put up at RAFFLE. The instruments will be sold cheap for cash or note, with an approved endorser.

JOHN H. HEWITT, Agent.

LOST.—A pocket book was either lost or stolen from the pocket of a gentleman on 22d instant, between 9th street and the Capitol, containing some $30 in bank notes of Washington, and $5 in Virginia money, and several notes of land, and valuable papers of no use to any one but the owner, as the payments have been stopped. The loser was in several merchant tailors and dry goods' establishments, and may have left it upon their counters. The finder will confer a great favor, and a reward if required, upon returning the said book to
